

Forecast For London & Southeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Tuesday 16 Nov 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Rather cloudy overnight, but fine on Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:

On the cloudy side, with a band of rain fading away as it edges southeast overnight, with many areas staying dry as a result. Cloud-cover should help to prevent a frost. Mist and low cloud more localised than recent nights. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Wednesday:

Any remaining early cloud and mist soon clearing to reveal a brighter and fresher day than of late, with sunny periods. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:

This period should stay largely dry, but often rather cloudy, with a risk of some morning fog given mainly light winds. Temperatures should be generally above average throughout.
